

Chauve Souris

is a small island, with lush vegetation and massive granite boulders, very close to the beautiful beach of Côte d'Or in Praslin. Private use of the island, very easy to reach by boat. Two luxury, typical creole style furnished villas, 5 rooms, each one different from the other. All comfort is assured, no entertainment is foreseen in this exclusive resort. Boat available for snorkelling, diving, excursions.

Cousine

Island is situated 2 km south-west of Cousin and approximately 6 km off the west coast of Praslin, Seychelles' second largest island. The island is granitic and is a private nature reserve, home to five of the Seychelles endemic birds as well as a variety of other endemic flora and fauna. Cousine offers an exclusive island experience with complete privacy in its beautiful hotel, in colonial style, composed of four luxury villas, facing the sea. All comfort is assured in this exclusive private island. Beautiful beach. Excursions.

