

Desroches

lies in the Archipelago of the Amirantes, 250 km south-west of Mahé, (one hour flying time) and has a surface of 402 hectares. It is 5 km in length and a little over 1 km wide. The island rises from a depth of 3000 metres, it is surrounded by very fine sandy beaches, covered by tropical vegetation, mainly coconut palms and casuarinas. It is the ideal place for snorkelling, fishing and diving.

Best period is from September to May, when the whole lagoon is underwater. Exclusive hotel composed of 20 elegant bungalows, with all comforts and well equipped for all water sports.

Félicité

is a small island three kilometres north-east of La Digue. It is a little paradise of 2.69 sq km. Easy to reach by boat from la Digue or by helicopter. Covered by lush vegetation, with orange and mango trees, Félicité disposes of two spacious villas and four bungalows, which provide accommodation exclusively for a maximum of 16 persons. Privacy is totally assured. Lovely beach, beautiful reef, sport possibilities and excursions.

