Silhouette

Silhouette is a granitic island of circular shape, with a surface of about 25 sq km situated 19 km north-west of Mahé and is the third-largest island of the archipelago.
It can be easily reached by a 45-minute boat or 15-minute helicopter transfer away from the capital Mahé and the International Airport.
The island is very interesting for its deep tropical virgin forest and ideal for nature lovers and walkers. After Mahé this is the most mountainous of all the other islands, Mount Dauban, named after the family that first settled this island, is 780 mt high.
On the island there are two resorts: one includes 12 confortables well equipped bungalows, the other, recently opened, is a five-star hotel, composed of 17 Pavillons, 63 Beach Villas, 30 Garden Villas, Restaurants, Spa and Wellness Center, 2 Boutiques, Library, Sport and Recreation Center, excursions possibilities and many other guest services.
