

General Map Republic of Seychelles

“Seychelles”

was named in honour of Viscount Jean Moreau de Seychelles, Minister of Finance during the reign of Louis XV. The archipelago is made up of 115 islands, 41 of which are granite and 74 coral islands. It lies between 4 to 10 degrees latitude south and between 46 to 56 longitude east of the Indian Ocean, north of Madagascar.