

don't miss!

MAHE'

Museum of Natural History

Independence Avenue - Victoria
(Stone of possession dated 1756, documents, acts, old maps, historical photos, shells and various collections).

Kenwyn House

Opposite the National Library, now National monument, old-style building, newly restored, art gallery, top class duty-free store. Fine jewellery.

Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception

Olivier Maradan Street - Victoria
This Roman Catholic Cathedral is the last impressive vestige of French colonial days.

Capucine House

Residence of the Roman Catholic bishop, it is an impressive colonial-style building, not open to the public, but well-worth an external glimpse.

National Culture Centre

National Library, National Art Gallery, National Archives) Fiennes Parade - Victoria
(Books, Expositions, Documents, Maps)

National Museum of History

National Library, National Art Gallery, National Archives. This museum houses mainly historical objects. Wide variety of objects revealing the atrocity of slavery days and those used in black magic and traditional Seychellois utensils.

Victoria Market - Market Street

Lively typical Creole market, plenty of fresh fish, meat stalls, vegetables, fruits, spices, curious objects and souvenirs.

The Trianon

Serret Road - Victoria
Typical Creole house, one of the first Hotels of the island, where Henry Stanley once lived, on his search for Livingstone. Today it is a Creole Restaurant.

Botanical Gardens

Mount Fleuri - Victoria

Eco Museum

La Plaine St André
Anse aux Pins (Historical Landmark).

Val de Près Village

Craft Village Anse aux Pins (Featuring Seychelles arts and crafts Craft Village, Vye Marmite Restaurant, Gran Kaz, Maison de Coco, Creole Institute).

La Marine - La Plaine - Mahé

(Manufactures handmade wood model boats).

Morne Seychelloise National Park The Mission

Lodge Viewing Point Sangdragon Allee - Sans Souci - Mahé. Classified as National Park in 1979, is the largest in Seychelles. Endemic plants and animals, selection of paths to discover the rain forest and its beauties.

Walks and Trails

Tea Tavern and Factory
Sans Souci - Le Morne - Mahé
During work hours it is possible to visit the tea factory. Tea selection by the Tea Tavern.

Jardin du Roi

Les Canelles - Mahé (Spice Garden - Birds Snakes - Insects). Typical Creole Restaurant.

Sainte Anne Marine National Park

Founded in 1973 is the first Marine Park in the Indian Ocean.

PRASLIN

Vallée De Mai Unesco World Heritage Site

Coco-de-Mer Palm Forest

Praslin Ocean Farm

Acquarium and Pearl Farm

Amitié - From the Seychelles Black Lip Pearl Oyster Pinctada Margaritifera - Jewellery Factory.

Walks and Trails

LA DIGUE

Union Estate

(Copra Factory-processing of coconuts, Vanilla and Cinnamon Plantation, giant turtles, colonial house).

Historical Cemeteries

(Union and north of La Passe).

Ox-cart ride

Typical transport car in La Digue.

Colonial houses - The Jungle tour

(walks and trails).